PROSPECTUS

We reserve the right at our discretion to transfer a course to another and this action will in no way waive the terms and conditions stated herein.

In the event of us having to cancel a course, without offering any acceptable alternative, then the client shall be entitled to a full refund of monies paid and no further liability shall be incurred by us.

International students may only request a transfer to another provider in special circumstances and whereby they have completed the initial 6 months of their chosen course with us.

Transferring between education providers Under the ESOS National Code, a student must meet certain conditions before they can enrol with another education provider if they are not happy with the course they are doing.

The National Code says you must have a letter of release from your education provider before you can enrol with a new provider if you have NOT completed 6 months of your principal course (the main course of study you are undertaking). If you want to transfer before you have completed six months of your principal course, you need your provider's permission.

You should make sure you understand that policy, and what your written agreement says you must do, before you make the decision to enrol with an education provider. If you are thinking about changing your course, you need to ensure that you continue to meet the conditions of your student visa.

Further information about changing courses or education providers is available on the Department of Immigration and Border Protection's website at <http://www.immi.gov.au/Study/Pages/changing-courses.aspx>

For more details about transferring and the requirements under the ESOS National Code, you can:

COMPANY PROPERTY

We are equipped with the tools and resources for you to gain the skills necessary to work in your chosen industry and just like being at work you are required to treat our tools and resources with care and respect, observing all instructions in the correct and appropriate manner.

Unless instructed and authorised to do so, you shall not touch or operate property, as this may lead to injury to yourself or others if used incorrectly.

You will be held financially liable for all negligent, reckless or wilful damage to our property.

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS PROCESS

In keeping with the National VET Regulator Act 2011, Standards 2015, we have a complaints and appeals process to assist you when the need arises.

In making your decision to enrol with us, you need to be aware that:

- A. A complaint relates to any matter not related to your training outcomes, and
- B. An appeal only relates to your training outcomes

You may complain or appeal:

1. Informally – a brief discussion with your trainer, where the trainers explanation is sufficient to resolve the matter, or
2. Formally – in writing, where an investigation is required to resolve the matter.

Our full complaints and appeals procedure is available for inspection at our training venue.

Any cancellations made inside 15 days of course commencement will not be refunded. If a client leaves and/or abandons a course before the scheduled termination date and time, for whatever reason, no refunds will be given.

When the deposit to secure a place on a course has been made and the student cancels outside 30 days, an administration/service fee of $750.00 WILL BE CHARGED.

Any course material that has been issued to the student MUST be returned to the Company before the remainder of the deposit is refunded.

FEE PROTECTION

In the circumstance of us being unable to provide services for which the learner has prepaid, the learner will:

- Be placed into an equivalent course such that the new location is suitable to the learner; and
- The learner receives the full services for which they have prepaid at no additional cost to the learner; or
- Be paid a refund of any prepaid fees for services yet to be delivered above the threshold prepaid fee amount.

This is assured through our membership of an approved Tuition Assurance Scheme.

NO REFUND

There is no refund of fees for Non-subsidised or Fee for Service courses or for any poor and/or non - attendance, poor behaviour or other circumstance preventing completion of the course.

Note: Under the National VET Regulator Act 2011, Standards 2015, we are entitled to withhold issuing you with a qualification or statement of attainment until such times as all fees have been paid in full, and we shall exercise our rights under this section.

LEARNING DIFFICULTIES

If you have any learning difficulties, we encourage you to identify them either directly or in confidence to your Trainer or Director, prior to course commencement.

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

International students requiring accommodation are able to take advantage of a number of accommodation types in the region. These include:

1. Oz Homestay,
2. Private rentals, and
3. Student Housing.

VOLUME OF LEARNING

We are required to meet the requirements of the Volume of Learning for all learners, as described in the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) for each qualification on scope.

To meet the volume of learning requirements we and you must meet the following requirements:

Attendance records

Records will systematically be maintained for learners on a registered course. Non-attendance due to illness evidenced by a medical certificate, or other exceptional personal leave must also be recorded, monitored and reported weekly.

International students must present a medical certificate issued by a Legally Qualified Medical Practitioner (LQMP), a sickness certificate issued by a pharmacy is not sufficient.

PROSPECTUS

Attendance requirements

As defined under the Volume of Learning a minimum number of hours must be completed for all learners. To achieve the Volume of Learning:

- Learners must attend at least 100% of the supervised hours scheduled for each semester of their course.
- We allow non-attendance for 10% of contact hours to cover occasional absences and illnesses, including illness supported by a medical certificate. As soon as practicable after the provider becomes aware the learner is no longer able to achieve 100% attendance for the term, semester or course, the learner should be notified that they are in breach of the Volume of Learning.

(Note: we are required to contact and counsel learners who are absent for two consecutive days).

Full-time learner

A currently enrolled learner who has enrolled for classes with a supervised study load of at least 21 hours per week, or who has enrolled for classes 16 hours but deemed to be full-time by the Director responsible for the learners primary accredited program.

Mandatory attendance requirements

Volume of Learning requirements mean a learner must attend at least 80 per cent of the supervised hours scheduled for each study period of learner's course.

Study Period

Each program will be divided into weekly, 5 weekly or 10 weekly study blocks depending of level of the qualification and the workload as contained within the Training Package.

WHS

We believe that all accidents are preventable and seek to ensure a safe environment for all students and staff.

During your course induction, your trainer will explain the WHS requirements particular to your training location and where required the need to wear Protective Personal Equipment (PPE).

You will be expected to comply with our Workplace Health and Safety Policies and report all incidents, near miss activities and safety hazards immediately.

WORKING WITH CHILDREN

We will comply with all Federal and State working with Children legislation.

A list of all relevant legislation is available from the Federal Police Website <http://www.aifs.gov.au/nch/policechecks.html>
